I need to remind everyone that the official server is running fan-made maps that were not released with .9935, and if you don't have them you will be ejected from the server when one of those maps come up. If you ever find yourself kicked out instantly before a map starts, you don't have that map.

You can grab all the maps you need at ModDB.

Map Pack A

Fan Map Pack 1 - Still authorizing at press time.

Note that some of these fan maps are now old and have since undergone conversion into official maps, such as Seamist.
