Aircraftkiller!It's not a storyline. It's a description of the map, which is the part you so obviously omitted from your quotate.

How about this?[list]Description: Nod commandos have successfully attacked Nuclear Reactor TX-1448. Coolant system and control rods damaged. Lethal radiation detected throughout facility. All staff and workers dead. Nod landing craft at beach.[/list:u]There, now its a description. 1 word makes all the difference, right?

Dont you see how petty this is? The guy has a quote from you in his signature. He obviously looks up to you in some manner. Maybe you should cut him a bit more slack than you do for the rest of us "morons".
