I didn't bear much expense. EA paid for my flight, hotel, and meals. I think the only time I have used my own money is at the EA Experience store inside EALA where we got to buy games at employee prices. I picked up Battlefield 2142 for Blazer for $10.

I am having what I hope will be a long conversation one-on-one with the C&C Community manager regarding Renegade this afternoon. I already have a bunch of stuff prepared.

I wish I could tell you more about what's going on and all the awesome stuff I have been seeing and doing here, but we were told as we arrived back at the hotel tonight that we are not to post anything... I'm not even sure I can tell you where we ate breakfast (and it wasn't terribly exciting).

I will tell you this: I will definitely be playing C&C3 when it comes out, no matter what course I take to get there.
