oh well whats a forum without a rly old thread kinda like that roofnemes thread which should have died a long time ago.

but ne way to add to ppls stories

I go to Hill Park Secondary school(for those of you out there that dont kno its highschool)and harry potter books are banned from the library for the same reason this crazy lady has, they think it causes ppl to do witchcraft. thats utter bullshit like honestly its a fucking highschool if highschool kids can't get a good enough grip on reality to not do everying that a fictional book says, then they should not be in highschool at all.
