As some people know I am making a mod that is based off of Legend of Zelda. I have come today to ask if anyone knew where I could find some models of Link from Twilight Princess, or if not, would be willing to make an accurate model of him. I need it to replace my current Link model (which looks nothing like Link), I will give the person/people who help me with this credit of course.

Second question, a while back I saw something about a hack/mod thing that allowed you to dodge in Renegade, if anyone knows how to get this to work, tell me please. Because obviously link dodges in the real game, and this would be useful in my mod.
