It's probably because 90% of them suck, and that's why it's stupid to play in a server that has 90% terrible maps to play one good one every 10 maps. I've tried quite a bit of the newer maps a bit ago and all I did was run around with an sbh and generally a lot of the people in the servers aren't that good. I could be using an sbh and just walk around and do random stuff and be first place for my team. Just saying, who wants to be on a team full of dumbasses?
