jsnrkdplease, dont just say upgrade to broadband! cause i cant. but i have a toshiba satellite laptop that i just bought that is 2.4 ghz with geforce 4 mx 420 and 512 ddr ram and 56k v9.2 modem or w/e lol. but the thing is i cant play renegade on it cause i get gameplay pending then i get kicked atleast once every 5 minutes! does anyone know how to change some settings on my modem or anything at all that might be able to let me play renegade? i can play on my old 800 mhz hp that is really gay online with out getting disconnected. i dont know what is up and it makes me mad! urgh!

ps-jtek owns you all

Hijack a broadband connection or get one of those T-Mobile hotspot things and play Renegade in Starbucks! LOL.
