Banned for one week. You won't be missed. I would suggest you take the time off to think about why you are such an ass, but I doubt you give a damn, and I fully expect the day that your ban expires you will immediately make some insulting spam post, except I won't just sit and shake my head like I have done in the past, I'm tired of your crap and you will abide by the forum rules or you will be gone. Have a nice week.
