I would too, but someone else would have to host that game (since I'd be hosting the others).

Btw, he accepted hijackers 1v1 and said "its sunday and I'm waiting for you" (1) hijacker had no warning and had no idea it was going to be today - and I think he knows that - he needs a little more heads up (2) trooprm02 isn't even on MSN. Hasn't been all day. Looks like a classic case of 'the dodge'.
