Care to elaborate? In my opinion if you using are a tank in the field to take out other tanks your doing a better job then using a n00bjet in the tunnel and killwhoring. The team that uses teamwork to take the field and has the better tankers deserves to move up and start hitting a building. Camping is sitting in a MRLS hitting a building hoping at the end you get the most points by basicly putting a duck tape on the mouse.
