ArUsH4nllkamakaziewow, thatnks for your help

Thankyou and Please DO NOT come again.....

I don't necessarily think this is the kind of environment Crimson intended these forums to have. Everyone was a newbie at some point, why can't you just help him if you know the answer to the question he's asking? Kamakazie, I'd help you if I could. Unfortunately though, I've neither created a clan before, nor am I in one at the moment. Thus, I have no experience in the aforesaid. Perhaps someone else, more helpful than the previous two people, will help you out.
