I'm okay at programing in some languages, making obscure references, and Commander and Conquer (TD, Covert Operations, RA, and Counter Strike. I have Aftermath, but it won't run. I suck at Generals).

But I know one day someone will make a totaliy great hack, err... mod off it 'cause that's the way the world works. Someone thinks up the worst idea ever (like Sole Survivor) and turns it into the coolest thing since sliced bread (as in Renegade).

Well, I gotta go turn off the TV now. My head will 'eplode in 5,4,3,2,1... (And what do you know. At the exact moment I typed "1," someone changed the chanel from the same 3 second loop to Spongebob. Wow...)
