Your right, im already planning on making a new account.

And probably going to change my IP.

Might as well start fresh.

And I'm not here to care if people beleive me.

Im not here to care if they ban me/flame me.

Ill respond to most flames, since I owe them that pleasure when i posted the first message.

Posting here you're going to ban evade will not do you any good.

You had your laugh, you must pay for it. You should not rejoin the servers you cheated on, ban evading si as bad as cheating again. Out of respect for the misery you caused these servers, you should stay away from it.

One thing: are you sorry you cheated or are you sorry you got caught? Would you still be cheating if noone banned you from their servers?
