It does kinda amuse me how pissed off you are getting at the fact you might have to remove one sound from your Renegade data. It might not be an issue with you but it is with people who actually play renegade competitively.

Whenever a small minority decides to make decisions for a group, it is a problem. That is what you are proposing.

That's BHS's problem, not ours. They're the ones who control Renguard, not anyone else. I don't see where you're going with this.
