So would you say that wasn't a cheat? Yeah, I know your sound isn't like that one, but the way RG works is that you can disallow certain files while allowing "whitelisted" ones to still be used. All you'd have to do is ask Blazer to allow your sound file.

I don't see why you're about to slit wrists over maybe having to get rid of a sound for a video game, but hey, that's just me.
