The community (formerly a clan) is known as Neo Gods. We are currently allocating funds and members (normal members accepted to) who can provide the funds to get us up and running. We play all of the CnC Series including Renegade (Renegade supported separately), the Battlefield Series, World of Warcraft (a few play this).

If you are interested in joining Neo Gods Community, we can be located at <http://www.neogods.net> and <http://forums.neogods.net>.

Thanks,
MathK1LL & Neo Gods Staff
