I know everybody has had this happen to them at one point or another. You get kills (or killed) in a way that makes you just sit back and laugh for a bit. So what's YOUR strangest and/or funniest kill/death (yay! fun with back slashes!!).

Heres a few to get this rolling.

I was gdi on island, and doing sweeps for stealth guys with beacons in an apc, when a stealth tank starts firing on the barr. So I zoom over to add some fire support to the inf trying to take it down, I'm driving foreward firiing backwards (so i cant see where im going). When all of a sudden I hear -boink-boink-boink. wtf was that, it turns out I ran over three stealth guys (two had beacons) without even meaning too. Had a pretty good chuckle over that.

*tag <insert your name here> you're it!!
