   I'm no good at programming or anything. I really need some sort of program ready made to decrypt it for me(if that is the right file). They have a program for battlefield 1942 that you can enter cd-keys into the file and when you need to change them you just double click the key you want and it enters that key into battlefield.