I e-mailed the owner WiloSt0rm for it then. And the video's were from Cyberpunk. I know Cyberpunk via e-mail and I get all new information about cheats via him. I report it to Slidehmr who reports it to anti-cheat teams. He also gets blamed for cheating because he tested some stuff. Also st0rm would be offline a week after I could try, so wilost0rm didn't really care about it, because he wanted to make a whole new start. Now he's gratefull for me cheating on his server, because he modified his server that way that cheating is now impossible...
