For the people that have seen Final Fantasy VII Advent Children this may sound familar. I am going to try to remake a huge part of the City of Shinra. Then I go try to make it some sort of Battlefield 2 like map. Probably CTF but maybe just AOW. I promise you. If it succeeds it will become a very cool map.

For now this is just an idea. I try to get this actually done and I try to post some update pics.
