I'm giving away some webspace to anyone who needs some.

there are no ads, and there is plenty of disk space and bandwidth, I'm just trying to use some of it up

Once approved, whoever I give it to will have access to upload whatever they want and install whatever they want.

I will also supply mysql databases and subdomains as needed.

I only have 3 slots available, so whoever wants it better speak up quick.

Also, if I find ANYTHING illegal, ANYTHING, your account will be deleted.

anyhoo, if you want it, post what it is your going to do with it and such and I shall talk to you.
