Think the others wrote enough. ty for that.

Still a bit of our history.

SoQ exists from 2002.

I wasnt there from the start, but iam in SoQ for about 4 years, and atm the leader.

We have had 1 member who cheated on another account than with the SoQtag. So none here should have experience with it. As a member of a friendly clan attented me on it, I checked it out. When proved, I kicked that member out of our clan.

As all of the serious clans, we do have wannabes, who play under the name of SoQ. Mostly recognized, because they dont know how to use the caps good, so they play under the name of soq..... instead of SoQ....

Still most SoQ wannabes dont cheat as far as I know.

About 2 months ago, I heard the wannabe SoQJames was accused from cheating. Dont have proof, but feel free to ban him from all servers.

Yep, as we have a tag before our name, there is always a risk, someone uses that tag too and starts cheating..

A up to date roster can always be found @ www.sourceofquality.nl
