He told me himself he used it for a while, im not doubting that. Point:

- a)hes been accused of cheating, several people (including BiO clan) have accused him and hes been suspicious, but no one has had hard proof so many people say, well then it doesnt matter.
- b)he changes his name at a VERY similiar time to when it was the hieght of suspision around him
- c)makes the new account on this forums and uses it instead of stonecold, meaning he wanted to change his identiti obviously, for what reason, you take a guess.
- d)Id seen him ingame, he wasnt doing too well, he left both times he joined, 1 time it could have been another guy idk, you all have similiar names, but he never told me who he was or said anything like "guess who this is" because he didn't want me to know it was him.
- e)he only admitted to it being him when I finally relized it and confronted him with it, and the time he didn't leave the server after I joined anyway, this is way offtopic, not a big deal but to me adds to the previous suspicion
