Gasp! The horror!

If anything they should be encouraging the consumption of soda.

Hmm.. I can see it now:

*Skinny kid on the news*

"I would like that personally thank the Sudan Ambassador for causing an end to the Soda industry. Because of him, I lost 50 lbs! I am now for healthy that I ever have been. It's all because of you Mr. Ambassador! I love you!"

**20 years later**

(America invades Sudan because of... well, do they really need a reason? )

*Sudan Ambassador*

"Why are these Americans winning? I thought they were all supposed to be fat slob!"

*Military person*

"They were until you caused the end of the Soda industry!"

*Sudan Ambassador*

"What have I done? I've ruined us all!"
