Personally, I dont see why they wanna keep out Mexicans from Us? And I also dont see why Cubans are shot on spot, when caught leaving.

Makes me love living in canada.

And Steroids in baseball, happens alot, but ever notice its with the players who are really good or have a god public image?

You never hear of steroids from people who arent batting .350, Pitching 103 MPH, K'ing 13 times a game, or smacking home runs.

Its only the good players who get the attention. Makes you wonder how many people actually use steroids.
