I would have banned him long ago, but Crimmy is much more tolerant. It's sad that he became annoying enough that the time spent dealing with his idiocy was taking away from more important things, including just enjoying the weekend.

I have no patience for people who cannot have a civilized discussion without resorting to name-calling, violence, threats, etc. Plus, most of his "problems" were totally asinine (like demanding that there be no mention of Renguard or other BHS stuff here).

The last straw for me was his outright threats. We've dealt with cyber-terrorists before, and they sure act tough until you take things into the real world and they realize that there ARE consequences to their actions if they push their luck. Hopefully he will chill out for his ban period and not try to carry out his threats. Its easy to talk smack about getting a lawyer etc but I seriously doubt he wants to drop a few grand to go to court over a fucking forum dispute, just to have a judge laugh it out of court Sad thing is he is not some pre-teen n00blet, so he should know better, ah well, enjoy the silence
