This situation has gone on long enough, and the bashing is getting offensive and quite old. If you don't like these forums anymore, or the people who run them, close your browser and don't come back. I have nothing more to say to anyone further causing useless problems on these forums. Good day.

Thats the problem with you people, your solution is just leave.

No one has said, Bad Crimson!

But put the show on the other foot, say you had an arguement with her, or anyone here, and something like happened to you?

Can you honestly say you wouldnt be pissed?

No, you cant. Youd be a bull faced liar to even attempt to tell me that you wouldnt care.

And I caused the problem? By saying I have an opinion? sorry if I'm not some renerobot controlled by Crimson like you are.

Honestly, leaving is the solution. For two reasons: first, you'll no longer have to put up with it, and you can put it past you, and second, if a lot of people are leaving, she has no choice but to stop doing what's damaging her forums if too many people leave. Forums are only successful if it has a user-base to drive it.

Plenty of people have said "bad crimson," but there are also people who are willing to defend her. They're brick walls.

Having an argument with someone doesn't mean you SHOULD go off on a stupid tangent. The worst I do when I get in a heated debate is call people like puddle_splasher a fucking idiot... which is true, mind you!

The issue ultimately comes down to whether or not it's that big of an issue. If it is that big of an issue, leave and make your statement that way. Acting childish only reinforces the (incorrect) notion that they have to run their forums like that because you are nothing but a child and have to be dealt with as such. Treat your adversary with respect, and they'll either do the same, or they'll be exposed for what they truly are. If you truly have this big of an issue with Crimson and Blazer, be the bigger person and let them expose themselves, otherwise you're just an asshole who's out to toot your own horn.
