Romaner wrote on Mon, 25 June 2007 14:55well to those of you that have jobs... you know working some overime would make things go alot quicker. i mean lets assume someone makes 15$ an hour. if you get paid 1.5 times for overtime you make 22.5 an hour. how much does a vista cost? lets say 350$ so that will mean in 15 hours of overtime you get vista! or instead you could play these stupid time consuming games for around 40-50 hours to get if "free".... and even if you do not work overtime you can still make 350$ in 23 hours at 15$ an hour...

Dude, I get paid 21 pound an hour, thats 42 USD an hour. I am finishing an eight hour shift soon, and have spent six hours of it playing these games...

Even if they was paying me 1000 dollars an hour I would still do it if I could get away with it (employee of the month I know).

I gained credits at a rate of approx 1000 per hour(ish), if you can take advantage of something, then you would be an idiot not too.

Plus... Any excuse to take some of my money back off bill gates I will do. I would rather work twice as hard to rob him of something then half as hard and line his pockets.
