Not sure that's exactly fair. Seeing as how those people wouldn't be basing it off of skill.

lol, if I was elected then I would be discussing it with members of my clan and obviously I have told them about this - sure they are obviously going to vote for me as after all I am the only candidate who would talk directly to them and bring their ideas to the table.

You trying to tell me nobody else has voted for people because of the communities/clans they are with? rofl.

With that comment, you've truly shown to me that you wouldn't be the greatest for the job. Your bringing your clan into this, not your abilities as a leader. Your making it unfair to people who are asking the community, not a party of +1 votes for mex. Which is all BBF is to you in regards to this. Why does BBF have any say over any other clan? Why should we pay attention more to them over any other clan? Your reasons as why its ok to have your clan vote is complete bullshit and unfair, and I think it would be fair to have you D/qed from this poll.

Oh I'm sorry I thought this vote was open to the renegade community and not just renforums? last I checked the members of our renegade division formed a part of that community - I apologise for actually having friends in this game who think I would be the best candidate FOR THEM.

BBF doesn't and won't have "more say than any other clan" if other clans choose not to come here and vote that's up to them - as I said from the start though non-biased people are most likely to vote for EWD, he is the only candidate really known in this community for his work on improving this game and that's why this poll was decided before it even began.

The reason I would like to be on the team is because I see 3? members representative of n00bstories, 1 from Jelly and one from (ex)nonn00bs (all large communities), if importance isn't also given to smaller games where individual skill actually counts for something then this ladder will be completely irrelevant to me and pretty much any player who doesn't frequent the "top of the page" servers. I also find it hard to believe that members who aren't particularly skillfull in this game can then turn around and define what being skillful should be, I am not anywhere near the best in this game but personally believe I am the best PLAYER out of the candidates put up and for reasons listed above I think that is important in this situation.

What defines a good player? The fact that your always at the top of the points? Always winning 1 Vs. 1's? Clan wars and top of points dont make you a great player.

Tbh, "Great Player" doesnt revolve around the word skill.
His attitude, skill, teamwork, community involvement, being a pleasure to play against/with makes a person a good player.
