Yeah...I mean if we can use multiple accounts at the same time.

For example, I use "IronBalls" account to play AOW. Then I want to use the "IronPilot" account to play only flying maps where I am Orca/Apache/Transport Heli pilot.

So my question is, should I have to delete the "IronBalls" account so I can create the "IronPilot" account OR am I allowed to create the new account so when I log on, I can choose between the 2 accounts?
