Tbh, I dont think moderating position should be picked by the community.
Being a fan-favourite doesn't mean your the best for the job, which I'm sure Crimson has already looked at.

She knows that some of the people on here are decent for the job, but going ahead and picking the person everyone votes for IMO, may not be the best move.

Im not saying I have anything against Oblivion, EWD (Go EWD!)OR any other candidate for this position.

When she wants to make a clear topic for it, I think there should be a few more names amongst them then what Viking has up.

EWD isnt up there, and I'll bet he has a few votes.

I think this race, if it goes down to a community vote-
Will go down to EWD Oblivion, Or J_ball.
