UNDER:

omg guys k get grenades soldiers and follow me!

The grenade soldier rush to PP works sometimes, but most of the time you are killed or they repair the power plant and make your rush a money gaining rush....

k guys get gunners!

gunner rushing the pp works more of the time, but still you need 3-4 to kill it quick enough before someone finds out or repairs.

DONATE ME FOR APC!

Donating money for APC works alot too, usually on under I rush for the obb or agt, but if i am nod, I will go right for the power plant if they heavily gaurd the agt, then usually going for the power plant works well....

hotty walk to nod pp:

This works 30% of the time for me, because 2 reasons, obb gets messed up by someone on my team, or i get caught by engineer and c4's me to death.

Mrls: Getting a mrls and using free aim can help you attack the obby without being seen by it, though most people will repair, I have killed it myself once or twice before.

Theres more....but i am hungry and need food so kthnxbai.

What kinda players do you play againt?

Seriously, thats a horrible way to start off on Under.
