Yes, I did. I said this:
"You're making stuff up.

AGAIN."

That's an answer to the stuff you made up. This is the 6th or 7th time in recent memory you've completely fabricated an argument. I honestly can't tell whether your memory is highly defective or you're simply a compulsive liar.

That's a matter of opinion.

troopr02 wrote on Sun, 08 July 2007 18:38If you want proof for the bypass, the good folks @ renstations and even everyone from his old clan, r3p4 would be more than happy to support the case against him. Ofcourse I know you will do shit all, or act the same way you did towards him in regards to cw.cc...nothing.
I'm still waiting for the evidence. You want him banned, you show me the evidence.
