I just got through ordering a PS3 60gb and a Premium 360 (I'm on my 5th Wii, they keep breaking or bricking), any suggestions on games? I already subscribe to gamefly but just going through the list I have no idea how good any of these games are.

I hear about Gears of War a lot and I saw Dead Rising (Evil clown = got my vote), added them both to the queue but what else is there?

I know more are on the way and thats mainly the reason I bought them but what should I be playing to fill the gap?

Little gaming history to show my taste:

All time favorites are Perfect Dark 64 (Hated 360 PD) and FF7 however I usually don't like to play that many rpg games. Last one I played was twilight princess and before that was FF10.

Loving Kotor (Currently playing the first and will play the second when I've finished)

Liked Red Steel, 80's Guitar hero, Call of Duty 1&2&3 (4 can suck it), Excite Truck, Katamari, Turok series, Lego star wars (got bored fast though), Rouge Squadron series, Zombie Master (HL2 mod), Resident Evil series (more shooting less puzzles), Star Wars Empire at Wars with Forces of corruption, Twilight Princess, Super Mario 64/ DS, AVP 2, Some Tom Clancy (but get bored fast), Pokemon (So sue me, I own every single pokemon adventure), Red Dead Revolver, Gun..I'm sure there is more..

Things I hate: Halo, Serious Racing Games (I prefer unrealistic stuff IE: Excite truck, Mario kart), Any game that has grinding, Doom 3, Sports, Dragon Ball Z and alike, 2d games (yes well to be honest I haven't enjoyed one in many years), UT Series.

Well thanks for reading and any help given twords the games. Oh and I got 4 controllers for both systems so only fun in multiplayer games are fine too.
