I plan to have an interview with as many "old" Renegade clan/community leaders as possible. This interview will preferably happen by MSN (or e-mail) and all clan/community leaders will get the same questions. It should be interesting to discover how the different clans were created, what their views of the game are, and much, much more!

The only condition is that I will only interview leaders of clans that were created in 2004 or before and that you have a person left that's capable of answering questions about its creation (basically if your clan was created in 2003 but noone has the slightest clue about its history then there's no much use). I also ask there to be some consistency: a clan/community that was created in 2003, then closed after 5 months, then reopened in 2006, closed after 3 months, then reopened since 2007 doesn't apply.

I hope this is more or less clear . Please PM me the details of the person that you want to have interviewed.

Clans/communities I'm certainly thinking of (so you have an idea):

n00bstories
The KOSs2
Soq
WNx Jelly??? n00bless???
...

I don't know all and everyone of them ofcourse, hence this post :$.

I wouldn't include renegadeforums.com (and similar) as they don't have their own in-game entity.
