Headphone perfection. I'm on my third pair. I will continue to buy these things till the cows come home. They are awesome AND not expensive. I have the same pair. The only issue I have with them is that the two wires under your chin likes to twist themselves together and it's very irritating. I presume this is because of the material it's made of. I've had to resort to regularly wearing them with the wire behind me because of that. The sound quality is actually pretty good, given the price.
