Terminator 101Hastala vista, baybe

Hastala is a word now?

as for the cheating thing. There has been some...disturbances in our server as of late. A certain member joined our 24 player server...played in it for a few hours before we really decided for sure that he was cheating in some way. We eventually decided that he had been using a click bot as well as tampering with always.dat to allow him to do certain things that would not otherwise be possible and we banned him. He rejoined in another server of ours immediately, without uttering a peep about it...which, to me at least, implies that he had been doing something wrong and was trying to not draw attention upon himself. Although I still dont believe in Renegade Aimbots...I'd say that someone has found a way to make the next best thing.
