If you didnt notice, which most of us who test on a daily basis might know, if they use right click dmg hacks, they dont move at all when attacking, they will have their gun down like they have been sitting there for 30 seconds, but a bullet will hit you and do extreme damage, I see mostly 200 damage per pistol shot, or 100 laser rifle, or 400 pistol shot, I've even seen hacks when they kill you theres no kill message, but it hacks it so it adds a kill to the hackers score, another thing hard to catch unless you read logs of who killed who, then check the point score board to see if anyones kills went up.
