Titan1x77I Dont see why you couldnt do it....I'd just make it

For the same reason that you couldn't make a Renegade mod for UT2003, or a Red Alert mod for Quake 3. You don't have permission to use that intellectual property. If he "just made it" as you suggest, then it's highly likely that a few months down the line, when it's all up and running and looking good, that he gets a Cease & Desist notice, and it all has to stop.
