well first of all he didnt seem like he knew wtf is going on to begin with. and now if he comes back he will/should/hopefully realize he posted in the wrong forums to begin with. so do you expect him to still come back here and post?? whats he going to say?

sorry im a noob? we already know that lol.

and whats with you people wanting your post count to go up so badly? all it really shows is that you have way too much time on your hands to be posting "post count +1" and not enough knowledge to actually go into different topics and post something usefull so that your post counts go up for a legitimate reason and not because you managed to get in some retarded thread and post so crap before the mods get a chance to lock it.

or mayb its just me being in a bad mood today because im at work, hung over and only got 4 hours of sleep.
