Targetted Advertising. The advertisers probably dont want to pony up dollars to advertise to a country they dont sell to. I downloaded it. It seems... interesting. I like throwing rocks but man is it hard. I know I'm playing on the hardest difficulty but its like... unfair. I'm laying prone in the jungle sniping at a guy in a tower when wham shot in the back of the head once by a mercenarie who just happened to know exactly where I was. You have no chance to retaliate either they hit you and you're dead... :/
