If he is banned, then i think half of this forum should be. If half of the forum is then it wont be a gaming forum anymore. We all break rules, ssnipe is pretty much the same as horq. They cheat, annoy and spam but i don't see a "should ssnipe be banned topic" (unless i missed it) or even "should roshambo be banned?" I know I've broken a lot of forum rules.

You should also consider age group, this is a game, and while mature people will play it. A lot of "kids" will too and thus, the re-tardiness of these forums.

Also, if everyone with a mental age of 12 is banned who is going to make those oh-so-good discussions about how "an arty pwns a med"? when was the last time Crimson posted a new topic in tactics forum? I don't mean to offend, but just to back up my point.
