the only problem is, even if alot of people dont like Ack, we are just causing the problems ourselves, even if he isn't involved

We let pointless comments get to us, and apparently no one has the intelligence to ignore it, if we want to solve this whole flaming crap, why don't we all grow up and ignore things that have no meaning..Then again ive been around these forums for over a year, so i dbout that itll happen :rolleyes: :rolleyes: :rolleyes: :rolleyes: :rolleyes: :rolleyes:

Oh and for all of you people who think im excluding myself for the stupidity, im not, because ive replied to stuff i didn't need to
