I've had this for a while for all games, but recently I just use it for CNC3, join aobfrost pass aobfrost, all lowercase, I may not be on, some others may be, maybe not, i kick people I dont know, so make sure you use your troopr name or else I may mistake you for someone else in there without being allowed.

I will also say, I like using custom maps, not because of advantage or anything, it's because their better made in my opinion, a map I made I always use in 1 vs 1 for the first game is called Super tiberium wars, it's a big flat map, 4 corners in the map have 2 tib spikes and a turret, and a crate containing veicles inside, all 4 player spots have infinite tiberium so it grows back 1-2 seconds right after harvesting, so no need to expand to harvest more.
