I see lots here like 80s. I put together over 400 songs from 80' - 92' of all my favorite 80s metal songs. Now doing one for 80's Rock. I love a lot of the newer bands out today and still love the classic rock on the 70's but I'm a child of the 80's to the core lol..

Newer bands like who? If we're talking mainstream, then I have a problem with that (not that would make a difference to anybody else but myself, but I still feel it's important ^_^).

why does it matter if its mainstream or not? lol unless your like my brother he hates anything main stream. as soon as a band hits it big hes like sell outs lol.
