I'm making masterchief's Halo 2 armor, I found the peices online, printed them out, it's all done in cardstock then resin and fiberglass, tons of people make their armor this way cheaply and it looks very accurate, i forget the site that had pics, but I'll post some of my helmet pics. I'm 3/4 done with it and it looks like the real deal like others have been making...so far 2 days into the project, the helmet will be done tomorrow.
