^^

I think my description says it all.

I can't even run renguard now because of it. And it's getting fucking annoying.

I used to run Renguard all the time until about July. Ever since then, I've been getting that message every 4:5 times I log onto rengaurd. I reguarly play on a half renguard sever called n00bless, owned by Hex, and I can't use any of the commands since I can't run rengaurd. Please fix this bug fast.
