the bible says that god accepts everyone, and that we too should accept them. meaning this party is following the bible.

and yet many Christians think that non heterosexuals are wrong, sent by the devil, and hated by god or something like that.

these two things conflict, and i say this: god accepts us all, so we should too. the fact that this party upsets people both amuzes, and confuzes me.

sometimes i think that some people dont even THINK about where they stand. if your a christian, dedicated to accepting others, and you dont like gays, well if i continue ill just be repeating myself lol.

Well, homosexuality is a sin. however, simply committing sins does not mean you're excluded from salvation. I'm not trying to state that one sin is worse than another, because for all I know, God may put homosexuality on the same level as saying a swear word.

I do believe they're ignorant though, from their antics anyways. It almost seems as if they're trying to mock Christianity.

Sin is sin whether it's dishonoring your mother and father, murder, or adultery. God doesn't differentiate between sins.
