I was fed up and just blew all their tanks shells...but is this really hampering your team? all the tanks were bought buy one guy, and I left him 1 or 2, i didnt get them all b4 i was kicked.

Are you stupid? Of course that's hampering your team. If I massed all those tanks, I woulda been so pissed off. I have to admitt, I get bored sometimes in Ren too, when the map is taking forever, but I don't ruin everyone elses fun, I leave. You chose the childish option, and broke the rules, so dont come complaining here that FnFalls is a bad community, because it isn't. If it ever was a bad community, it was because you were playing there.
