Uhg, don't start this crap again.

Didn't you ask these same questions before? Also check the same page as always:
<http://www.renhelp.net/?mod=Content&action=view&id=Getting+Started>

1) Check www.RenhelP.net before any of your questions.

2) Also note that your title is supposed to be a summary and your message body is the details of the problem and again, we went over all of this before...

IE:

Title= Missing Presets

Message Body= Hi I cant read the website people are always sending me links to or follow a simple posting structure. I have the same question that I had answered a month ago and I can't handle using the search function because it requires moderately decent spelling.
